A sponsored institution of the Congregation of the Sisters, Servants of the Immaculate Heart of Mary

EVERYDAY

Holiness

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 16, 2024

9:30 A.M. - 12:30 P.M.

29 SHELTER ROCK ROAD | MANHASSET, NY 11030

PRESENTED BY: MARYANNE JUCHEM | $50 PER PERSON

Holiness is often viewed as being embedded into Sacraments, church rituals, and the saints (whose lives may often feel unattainable and separate from our own). Perhaps we were led to believe that we need to make our lives less human and more perfect in order to be more holy. Through presentation, individual reflection, small group discussion, and praying the prayer of St. Teresa of Avila, participants will expand their understanding of how holiness is already present in their everyday lives: Together, we can discover more of God's holiness and circumstances, we can find Jesus and encounter holiness, and we can BE holiness.

Guests are welcome to bring your own lunch and gather afterwards.
